

- You have the right to feel safe and keep safe where you live or spend your day.

- You have the right to feel safe when out and about.

- You have the right to feel safe when you are with friends, family or people whose job it is to support you.

- You have the right to speak up if something is happening to you that makes you frightened, hurt, angry or sad.

- You have the right to be listened to and to be taken seriously.

- You have the right to be treated with dignity and respect.

Warrington
Speak Up

- You have the right to support from an advocate.

Advocates are independent and do not work for Warrington Borough Council. They work for Warrington Speak Up.

They are specially trained under a piece of law called the Care Act.

A Care Act advocate will support you to understand and be involved in your safeguard meeting. (Care Act 2014)

